NOTASULGA HAS WON SIX OUT OF SEVEN RACES.

Best Two-Year-Old Filly Shown So Far Has Cleaned Up $9,950 in Stakes and Purses-Bookmakers Have a Losing Tussle With the Talent-Yearling Sales.

Notasulga, who won again yesterday at the Bay, is easily the best of the two-year-old fillies shown so far this season. After a successful campaign at New Orleans, Notasulga, who is a daughter of The Commoner-Not, was brought here by her owner, Albert Hamel, who predicted at Aqueduct that his filly would cause a sensation in the Eastern turf world. Since that time Notasuiga has started seven times, winning six races and finishing second to Half Sovereign in another event. The has run in all kinds of going with big weight up and has been one of the most consistent performers in training. In stakes and purses she has cleaned up $0.950, and her owner has re-fused an offer of $20,000 for her. Unfortunately the filly has few important stake engagements, so that it will be impossible for to measure strides with some of the other ks when they come to the races in these

In yourday's affair Notasulga looked to be such a sure thing that the plungers took p to 20, the opening price, and backed her down to 2 to 5. She gave weight to everything in the race but Megg's Hill, whom she met on even terms in this respect. Walter Jennings, however, did not believe that Notasulga could beat Julia Powell, a filly, by Watercress Cottage Girl, who ran in his colors He made no secret of the fact that Julia Powell was one of the fastest fillies that he had ever trained, with the result that the daughter of Watercress was backed from 20 down to 12. with a flood of place and show bets wagered upon her. But Notasulga was better seasoned and beat Julia Powell rather handily. Whitney's Park View, 40 to 1, who ran third, is a filly, by Hamburg-Morningside, who surprised both her owner and trainer. She had worked five furlongs in 1:03 and a fraction, so that John W. Rogers did not beheve that she would be close to the winner. But Park View was only beaten by about length by Notasulga. The books lost heavily on the result.

With Prince Hamburg and McCarter scratched out of the first race the talent went Keene's mare Suffrage in a body, backing her down from 7 to 5 to 9 to 10. She was the class of the race and was in superb condition, but nevertheless many wise insiders took Crackenthorpe, which was played from 4 to 1 down to 18 to 5. This was because it was not believed that Suffrage could conede twenty-two pounds to Crackenthorpe. but the latter ran like a cheap selling plater, while the Keene mare was far and away the best. J. C. Core was well supported for the place, while Barbary Belle was heavily backed to show, the books getting a jarring that

Those who backed Commodore Fontaine in the steeplechase at 8 to 1 were starting for the betting ring to cash when the Gerol-stein gelding fell at the very last jump. He had passed Phantom, 7 to 5 favorite. in the 4 middle of the backstretch and was going along easily when he suddenly started to run out as Dupee was in the act of steering him for the last obstacle. Then the jockey fumbled with the reins as he reached for his whip with which to tap his mount over the side of the head to keep him in, and in so doing he lost control of the jumper just as he reached the hedge. The spill was a piece of dumb luck for the public which had played Phantom and was also a severe blow to the bookmakers. Jimmy Lane, which ran second. was greatly in demand for the place, while Sheriff Williams was liberally taken three

The Long Island Handicap was as difficult to solve as a Chinese puzzle. There were ten starters and all of them were backed. Cairngorm ruled favorite at 4 to 1 and was steadily played. Zambesi and Prince Hamourg were played at 5, Grapple at Premium at 8. Cottontown at 10. Wexford Maid at 12 and Sir Lynnewood at It was the first appearance of Prince Hamburg in a long distance event, and the crack sprinter with only 110 pounds on his back was supported by nearly all the handicappers, who believed that he would be able to stay in front from end to end. If Mounmight have run a better race, but as it was was ridden out in front under a choking pull and stopped when called upon to increas his speed at the end of a mile. Cottontown, who is a pretty fair sort of a horse, was well backed three ways by the Western contingent, the ring paying out a bundle on his success. He gave weight to all but Zambesi, conceding fourteen pounds to Sir Lynnewood and nine to First Premium. The race was full of ough riding which robbed the backers of Zambesi and Grapple of all chance to cas h Long Island were Sir Walter, Ramapo, Lueania, Clifford, Ogden, Bangle, Charentus, Gold Heels, Herbert, Douro, Major Dainger field and Dishabille. The race was worth $4,240 to the winner. The books broke better than even on the way the horses finished.

There was a hot tip in circulation on George selding had been running some fine races on other tracks and some of the smartest bettors backed him from 5 to 4. The public, however, and nearly all of the big operators went to Saracinesca, pounding him down from 3 to 2 to 6 to 5. There was also a strong play on Dreamer, straight and place, while Golf Ball, a sleeper from the Madden barn, was lowered from 15 to 8 and taken three Zethus was also reduced from 15 to 12, while Cabochon, in the Keene colors, was taken at the last moment across the clates. Tony Bonero was generally ected at the false quotation of 15. The books paid out thousands on the success of Saracinesca, and also on Golf Ball to show. Saracinesca has now won three straight races and is at his best.

But for a hot tip on the Newcastle Stable's Scallop the Gates-Durnell combination would probably have "killed" the ring with Joe Nealon in the last race. Scallop had been going great guns in his work and was backed from 3 to 2 to 1. Joe Nealon, meanwhile, was played from 4 to 7 to 2, Gates having $2,500 on him straight and $2,500 on place The distance, six furlongs, just suited the Durnell colt, who will win a lot of races over this route in future. Hal, who ran into the place, was heavily supported three ways and would have been closer to Joe Nealon at the wire if he had not been knocked back at the sixteenth pole by Biskra, ridden by little Walsh. The stewards saw the interference and after questioning Walsh decided to disqualify Biskra, which put Scallop in third place. Alauda was backed down a point to 7, while Orena was reduced from 12 to 10. There was also support for Wild Survey B. There was a support for Wild Survey B this route in future. Hal, who ran into the There was also support for Wild Star and R. L. Thomas's Bewitched, a filly by Frankfort-Task Master, was taken Miller rode a winner, a second and a third, but he did not have much on E. Dugan, with winner and two thirds. Sandy, who is rapidly coming into favor, also did well with a winner and a second.

Much interest is shown in the probable meeting at the Yonkers track in August. It is said that James Butler will announce his plans o-morrow. As soon as he receives a license from the State Racing Commission he will make a formal application to the Jockey Club for dates. Just how the Jockey Club will receive this application remains to be seen. It is believed in some quarters that an attempt will be made to buy the Yonkers track outright from Mr. Butler in order to keep the month of August clear for the Saratoga meet ing. If a meeting is held at Yonkers it will not take a great deal of money to put the plant in apple pie order. At the yearling sale before the races yesterday a colt by Goldcrest-Salmera was knocked down to J. E. Widener for $3,500, after John F. Madden had taken part in the bidding Tom Wei h paid $2,600 for a colt by Semproby Ethelbe. Fright for $1,300. Good prices were realized in nearly all the transactions.

Beats Sir Lynnewcod, 15 to 1, Who Had Hard Luck, by a Head-Notasulga Scores Again-Suffrage, Phantom, Saracinesca and Joe Nealon Win Races

Cottontown, a 10 to 1 shot, won the Long Island Handicap, at a mile and a furlong, run at Sheepshead Bay yesterday, in sensational style by a head. After following the pace set by Prince Hamburg, 5 to 1, and Coy Maid, 12 to 1, for a mile, he shot to the front with a commanding lead, but toward the end of the ourney he weakened and had to be put under a heavy drive. Sir Lynnewood, 15 to 1, who ran second, should have won. He was knocked back on the far turn, losing half a dozen lengths, only to come again with a powerful rush through the homestretch. He finished three parts of a length in front of First Premium, 8 to 1, who began slowly, as usual. Crowding on the lower turn carried Zambesi, 5 to 1, and Grapple, 7 to 1, wide, these horses losing so much ground that they were practically out of it when they turned into the backstretch, where Grapple was again interfered with. Cairngorm, 4 to 1 favorite, was never able to get near the vanguard. The time was 1:53 2-5.

Notasulga, at the prohibitive price of 2 to 5, won the third event, for two-year-o d fillies, five furlongs, Futurity course, but it was by no means easy for her. She made all the pace, but Garner had to shake her up at the end to win by three parts of a length from W. B. Jennings's Julia Powell, backed from 20 to 12. The latter peat H. P. Whitney's Park View. Megg's Hill, 8 to 1, a head back. The time

Megg's Hill, 8 to 1, a head back. The time was 101,2-5.

Mr. Keene's Suffrage, backed down to 9 to 10, made a show of her rivals in the first race, a handicap at six and a half furiongs, for she galloped to the front soon after the start and breezed home two lengths in front of the Newcastle Stable's J. C. Core, 5 to 1, who had some margin over Barbary Belle, 9 to 1. The latter beat Crackenthorpe, backed down to 18 to 5, by a head. The time was 1:19.

backed down to 18 to 5, by a head. The time was 1:19.

The victory of T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s Phantom, 7 to 5 favorite in the steeplechase over the full course, was extremely lucky. J. W. Colt's Commodore Fontaine, 8 to 1, was winning when he fell at the last jump, which enabled Phantom to gallop home a winner by fifteen lengths in 5:19. Jimmy Lane, 2 to 1, ran into the place three lengths in front of Sheriff Williams, 9 to 2, who made the bulk of the pace.

The Newcastle Stable's Saracinesca, 6 to 5 favorite, was much the bes. in the fifth race, at a mile and a sixteenth on the grass. Miller let him down at the head of the stretch and he breezed to the wire a length and a half in front of Tony Bonero, 15 to 1, who had three parts of a length over Golf Ball, 12 to 1. George S. Davis, 4 to 1, and Dreamer, 4 to 1, had early speed, but stopped. The time was 1:49 i-5.

Boots Durnell put Joe Nealon, 7 to 2, over the plate in the last race, at three-quarters of a mile, the coll leading nearly all the way and winning in a romp by four lengths from Hal, 6 to 1 Biskra, 25 to 1, who finished third, was disqualified for fouling Hal, and the Newcastle Stable's Scallop, 2 to 1 favorite, was moved into third place. The time was 1:14 2-5. Four favorites and a second choice got the coin. The attendance was more than 15,000. The summaries: PRILADELPHIA, July 2. The East scored a Carrie B. Neely of Chicago in the final match for the women's singles lawn tennis championship of the United States by the score of 8-3, 8-2. Except in the first three games Miss Sears outgeneraled Miss Neely throughout. The Western champion was able to come to the net only at rare intervals, being prevented by Miss Sears's clever cross-court drives and accurate placings. There was no challenge round because of the default of last year's champion, Miss Helen Homans of New York.

In the championship match in mixed doubles Miss May Sayres and Wallace F. Johnson of the Marion Cricket Club defeated Miss Natalie Wildey, of Plainfield, N. J., and W. Morris Tilden of the Philadelphia Cricket Club by the score of 6-1, 7-5. Summaries:

Klem sent McGinnity from the coaching lines to the clubhouse and meted out the same punishment to Dahlen later in the game. The Brooklyns put Ames on the shelf in one inning. Jordan batted Casey and Lumley home after Jimmy had singled and Harry had strolled.

Mike Lynch made his first appearance on any New York stage, succeeding Ames in the second inning. The Brooklyns took liberties with Mike's pitching, too. In the fourth inning Scanlon tripled. He came in on Alperman's hit to left. Casey drew four balls. Lumley gently jostled the ball over the right field fence and emptied the sofas. Jordan's double and Maloney's hit gave the Brooklyns their eighth run.

It was a listlessly played game on New York's part. The Manhattans were up a stump all the time trying to decipher Scanlon's pitching. Devlin managed to score in the fourth on a base on balls, Seymour's two bagger and Hannifin's out at first. The ninth inning was the only one in which the New Yorks made more than one hit. Corcoran's triple and Bowerman's one bagger gave them a run. The score:

Atlantic Club Takes Challenge Prize Fron Bensonhurst Club.

The Childs trophy is now held by the Atlantic Yacht Club. It was won yesterday in a race sailed on the lower bay by W. A. Barstow's, sloop Soya. The Atlantic Club challenged the Bensonhurst Club, the holder of the trophy, and named the Soya, a 22 footer, and C. Lembeke's 15 footer Gunda The defending club was represented by Commodore W. H. Childs's 22 footer Joy and Richard Moore's 15 footer Bensonhurst. The Marine and Field Club entered C. M. Camp's 15 footer M. and F.

Alfred Mackay, chairman of the regatt a committee, selected the Old Orchard Shoal mark and sent the racers off at 2.05 o'clock in a southwest wind. The starting line was off Sea Gate and the course was twelve and a half miles dong. The first leg was windward work. Soya led across the line, followed by Joy, and all held on the port tack toward Craven Shoals, and then on the starboard tack stood between the Hospital Island.

The Gunda took advantage of the ebb tide and kept well to the south, but she met the tide sweeping out of Prince's Bay, and lost so much she withdrew. The others held in to the Staten Island shore until they could fetch Orchard Shoal. The Soya turned the mark first at 3:58; Joy at 4:04:30, Bensonhurst at 4:15, and M and F at 4:15:18.

The next leg was a reach to the West Bank light, and the yachts kept the same order. Then to the finish it was a run with spinnakers. Soya kept her lead to the finish and won. The Joy was second, Bensonhurst third and M and F fourth. The 22 footers had to allow 23 minutes 37 seconds to the 5 footers, but even conceding this big allowance the Soya won. The wind was rather fluky and the Bensonhurst broke a throat halliard block or she would have done better. The summary: CHILDS TEOPHY RACE—COURSE, 1212 MILES—START. mark and sent the racers off at 2:05 o'clock
